Dear All,

Now that the dust has settled, a little sleep has been caught up on and following our debrief with the client, we would just like to send over our thanks for helping make The BRIT Awards 2016 another outstanding event.

In the words of our client:

I wanted to send a short email to say many congratulations and thank you from BRITs/BPI on a job very well done.

It looked spectacular, the media reaction has been extremely positive and we have had lots of messages from industry guests who had a great time.

A huge amount of work goes into making the BRITs the enormously successful showcase for our business that it is - a very big thank you and congratulations to all involved.

With admiration, and thanks and please pass this email on to all members of your team who were involved in the run up and on the day itself,

Look forward to catching up with you all soon

Bethan, and Lucy
